SA-HAKATHON'26

HEXAWARE

"ENGINEERING A SUSTAINABLE WORLD"

A 36 HOUR NATIONAL-LEVEL HACKATHON

TEAM GUIDELINES:

- Each team can consist of a min of 2 and a max of 3 students.
- Each team must have one Team Leader, who will be the official point of contact with the organizers.
- Every team must register with a unique team name.
- Once registered, team details cannot be modified.

PROBLEM STATEMENT SELECTION RULES:

- Each team is allowed to have only one problem statement.
- Each team can participate in only one domain.
- A maximum of 6 teams will be allowed to work on the same problem statement.
- Problem statements will be allotted randomly using a pre-defined structured plan.
- Once a problem statement is allotted, it cannot be changed.

CODE OF CONDUCT:

- All team members are expected to follow the institution's code of conduct within the venue premises and act responsibly.
- Any form of misconduct, misbehaviour, unethical practices or disruption may lead to immediate disqualification.
- Any form of plagiarism leads to disqualification.

GENERAL GUIDELINES:

- The decision of the judging panel and organizing committee will be final and binding.
- Organizers reserve the right to:
  - ➢ Modify rules if necessary
  - ➢ Disqualify teams violating guidelines
  - ➢ Participants are advised to regularly check official announcements for updates.
- Use of open-source libraries & API s is permitted.

HARDWARE GUIDELINES:

- Participants are asked to bring their own specific hardware components for their project.
- Basic components will be available in stalls at the venue. Participants can buy them by paying respective amounts.

ACCOMODATION GUIDELINES:

- Rooms will be provided for refreshments accordingly.
- The essentials for the refreshments will not be provided by the organizers. The participants are asked to bring their own essentials.

FOOD GUIDELINES:

- Tokens will be given to all participating candidates.
- Food will be provided for Day1-Lunch and Dinner & Day2-Breakfast and Lunch.
- Refreshments will be provided accordingly.

TRANSPORT DETAILS:

- Students can avail college transport during Day 1 morning to reach college.
- The bus routes will be communicated 5 days before the event.